Chick and Duckling are back in local author Carolyn j Morris' Winter Ride, the second in her children's series. This time 'round, Chick and Duckling venture out on a sleigh ride that takes them through the farm's fields of snow, into the woods and even across the icy pond, what a ride! Morris' lyrical adventure is absolutely charming! Together, Morris and returning illustrator extraordinaire Richard McNaughton, tell a wonderful heartwarming story of two fast friends and their adventures on their winter ride!
