

IN THE HILLS™

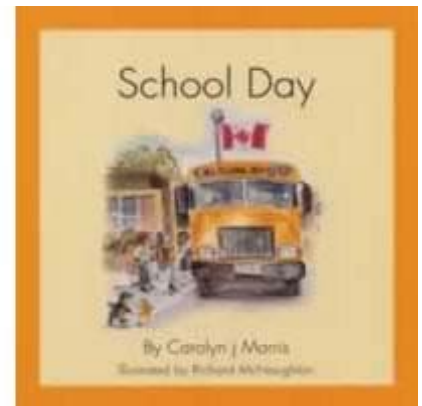

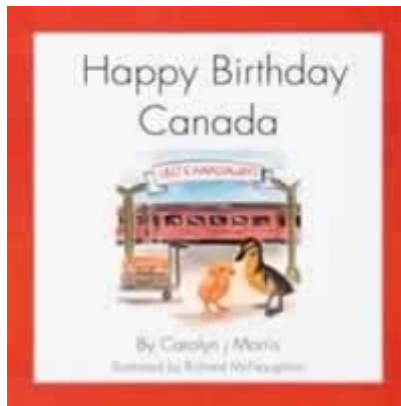

A magazine of country living in the Headwaters region

The Year in Books: 2017

The year in books: Our annual review of the latest works from local authors.

November 22, 2017 | Tracey Fockler | Arts

Happy Birthday Canada & School Day by Carolyn j Morris illustrated by Richard McNaughton

Chick and Duckling of the Railfence Bunch are back in two new picture books for little ones. In Happy Birthday Canada, the two celebrate Canada's sesquicentennial by hopping aboard a train and travelling to every region of the country.

Their adventures continue in School Day. Riding the big yellow bus is a bit scary, but the friends are soon playing instruments in music class and learning their numbers and alphabet.

Carolyn j Morris, who lives in Beeton, is also the author of the Spruce Valley novels. Illustrator Richard McNaughton lives in Grey County. (Railfence Books, $12.95 each)